Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Most of these financial materials were part of a collection acquired by Yale in 1922 from William H. Brown of West Haven, Conn. The collection, initially called the William H. Brown Statistical Library, numbered some 23,000 documents and covered the years 1890 to 1917. The collection was merged with similar materials already in the University Library and later expanded by gifts from Brown and others to become what is now known as the William H. Brown Collection.

Scope and Contents

This collection, compiled by William H. Brown, contains a variety of financial documents concerning the U.S. motion picture industry. Examples of these documents include reports, prospectuses, analyses, press releases, clippings of newspaper articles, advertisements, business plans, company profiles, letters and notices to the stockholders, stockholder agreements, proxy statements, subscription agreements, new stock issues, listing bulletins, bond offerings, trust deeds, mortgage indentures, and readjustment plans. While all of these documents are represented in the collection, they are not all represented by each company.
