Biographical / Historical

William McBrien (1930-2009) was a professor of English at Hofstra University. He wrote biographies of Cole Porter and Stevie Smith.

Scope and Contents

William McBrien's papers pertain chiefly to Cole Porter, and arise mainly from the research for his book Cole Porter: A Biography (New York: Knopf, 1998). They include research materials, sound recordings, and other items. McBrien's original arrangement has largely been preserved, so some topics are covered in more than one series. A few items have been re-labeled or re-filed for the sake of clarity.

Arrangement

The collection is organized into five series, as follows: I. Notecards. II. Glossary of Names. III. Porter Chronology. IV. Research Topics. V. Sound Recordings.

Collection Contents

Series I: Notecards

This series consists of McBrien's notecards from his research on Cole Porter. Sub-series I.A is arranged alphabetically by name, and Sub-series I.B is arranged alphabetically by topic.
