Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

These materials have been arranged and described according to national and local standards. For more information, please refer to the Beinecke Manuscript Unit Processing Manual.

Samuel Francis Cleveland (1815-1893)

Samuel Francis Cleveland (1815-1893) was born in Marlboro, Ulster County, New York, to Elijah Cleveland (1775-1834) and Lucretia Brookins Cleveland (1787-1837). In 1834, the Cleveland family left their home in Preble, Cortland County, New York, for Wisconsin. However, Elijah Cleveland died en route near Elkhart, Indiana, on September 20, 1834. Lucretia Cleveland died in Elkhart in 1837.

In 1847, Samuel Cleveland married Lucy Knight Cleveland (1828-1868) in Michigan. Their son, Mortimer Lindsay Cleveland (1848-1907), was born in Wisconsin. Cleveland left Wisconsin in 1852 to mine gold in California, while his wife and son moved with the Knight family to Bennington, Ottawa County, Kansas. The Cleveland family reunited in the 1860s, and a second son, Arthur Artemas Cleveland (1867-1937), was born in Bennington in 1867.

Samuel Cleveland worked as a farmer, providing crops and stock to businesses in Bennington, Salina, Lindsey, and other towns and villages in Kansas. He also served as postmaster for Bennington.

In the early 1870s, family troubles and crop failures eventually led Cleveland to sell the farm and move with his sons to Waconda, Mitchell County, Kansas. He unsuccessfully continued farming in Waconda, which led to a relocation to Cawker City, Mitchell County, Kansas, in the mid-1870s. In Cawker City, he established a nursery and during the winter months, worked as an agent for nurseries selling fruit trees and grape vines on commission. He also sold insurance and subscriptions to multiple publications on commission.

In 1882, Cleveland moved to Delphos, Ottawa County, Kansas. Mortimer Cleveland settled in Short Creek (later Galena), Cherokee County, Kansas, where he worked in the lead mines. Arthur Cleveland and Samuel Cleveland later joined him in Galena.
