Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

ROBERT GIROUX (1914-2008)

Robert Giroux was an American book editor and publisher. He was born April 8, 1914, in Jersey City, New Jersey. He attended Columbia University, before going on to work for Columbia Broadcasting Network, Harcourt Brace & Company, Farrar, Straus & Company (later Farrar, Straus & Giroux).

Giroux worked with many prominent authors including John Berryman, Elizabeth Bishop, T. S. Eliot, Robert Lowell, Thomas Merton, and others. Giroux also served as the president of the National Board of Review of Motion Pictures.

Robert Giroux died on September 5, 2008.
