Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

The drawings and maps included in this collection have come from a variety of sources, including transfers from the Yale offices concerned with building design, construction, and maintenance; other Yale offices; and individual donors. Additional drawings and maps of Yale buildings and facilities that do not form an integral body of records on their own are added to this collection.

Conditions Governing Access

The materials are open for research. Series I is available on aperture cards, and patrons must use the aperture cards instead of the original drawings. Special permission from the Head of Manuscripts and Archives is required to use original drawings in Series I.

Original born digital files, as well as preservation masters, may not be accessed due to their fragility. Researchers must consult use copies, or if none exist request that they be made. Born digital files cannot be accessed remotely. System requirements include a Manuscripts and Archives computer and file viewing software.

Scope and Contents

The materials consist of design, preliminary, working, shop, and "as built" architectural drawings and maps of buildings and grounds owned or used by Yale University. The drawings range from original concepts to full scale details of equipment and ornamentation. The media vary from water colors, pen and ink sketches, pencil on tracing paper drawings to blueprints and photostats.

General note

Arrangement

The materials are arranged in two series: Series I. Drawings accessioned before 1980 and subsequently microfilmed. Series II. Drawings accessioned since 1980 and not microfilmed.

Collection Contents

Series I: Yale Architectural drawings and maps (microfilmed), circa 1880-1980

Contains architectural drawings which were accessioned prior to 1980. These drawings were microfilmed as part of the Yale Architectural Archives Project. Information about the drawing (e.g., building, job, drawing set, documentation type, date, architect) was coded and entered into a database. Aperture cards containing the coded information along with a negative image of the drawing are available in Manuscripts and Archives. The database was used to produce printed indexes to the drawings by building, architect, date of drawing, and image number.

Arranged by region/chronology code. See Appendix for full listing of buildings arranged by region/chronology.

A spreadsheet (.xls) listing boxes and aperture cards by building is also available.

Series I is available on aperture cards. Patrons must use this format. Special permission from the Head of Manuscripts and Archives is required to use original drawings in Series I.
