Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Materials have been assembled from various collections and acquired from several individuals. They include materials transferred from the Latin American Collection Curator, Yale University Library, 2012-2015.

Conditions Governing Access

The entire collection, with the exception of Accession 2013-M-023, is available on microfilm. Patrons must use HM 251 instead of the originals.

Conditions Governing Use

Copyright status for collection materials is unknown, though much of the material in this collection is likely in the public domain. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

Preferred Citation

Southern Cone Collection. Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library.

---

Existence and Location of Copies

The entire collection, with the exception of Accession 2013-M-023, is available on microfilm and may be purchased from Gale Group, Farmington Hills, Michigan.

Scope and Contents

The collection contains correspondence; government documents; published illustrated materials; and writings from the Southern Cone region of Latin America (Argentina, Paraguay, Uruguay). The collection is arranged by country, and by date within country. The description of each item includes, when possible, its author, title, place of origin, and a summary of its contents. When an item is a copy of an original, it is arranged by the date of the original. The date field, however, contains the date of the copy itself, not the original. The date of the original is included in the summary description of the item.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged alphabetically by country, and by date within country.

Collection Contents

Inventory, 1779-1988

The collection is comprised of originals and copies of materials from Argentina, Paraguay and Uruguay. The majority pertain to Argentinian history from the late eighteenth century to the middle of the present century. Of particular significance is a nineteenth century bound volume bearing the imprint "De Don Jose San Martin." It contains numerous handwritten passages drawn from philosophical texts, religious and political treatises, as well as literary works, which reflect the education and thinking of this leader of South American independence. A summary of documents dealing with the abortive Alzaga rebellion, written by the acting Viceroy, discusses the political situation in Argentina just prior to independence. Materials about Buenos Aires's La Boca neighborhood are useful for the study of Italian immigration to Argentina, and the history of the Argentine-Italian community. Of note regarding Paraguay are handwritten copies of several little-known texts that deal with the country's history in the early nineteenth century.

Patrons must use microfilm on FILM HM 251 instead of the originals.
