Biographical / Historical

George William Eve (1855-1914), a British bookplate artist, was an etcher and an expert in the field of heraldry. He was admitted to the Heralds' College as well as to the Royal Society of Painter-Etchers and Engravers. He produced a number of armorial bookplate designs, including a series of three bookplates for the Royal Library at Windsor Castle, which were used by Queen Victoria. Many of his designs were exhibited in Great Britain as well as internationally. He was also the author of Decorative Heraldry; A Practical Handbook of Its Artistic Treatment, published in 1897.

Reference: George H. Viner, A Descriptive Catalogue of the Bookplates Designed and Etched by George W. Eve, R.E. (Kansas City: The American Bookplate Society, 1916), 13-16.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains over 200 bookplates by British designer and etcher George W. Eve (1855-1914). Most of these bookplates are documented in A Descriptive Catalogue of the Bookplates Designed and Etched by George W. Eve, R.E., authored by George H. Viner and published in 1916. Given his background and expertise in heraldry, most of Eve's bookplates are armorial designs, although several fine pictorial designs, such as library interiors and maritime scenes, are also included.

Arrangement

Organized into four series: I. Bookplates – Numbered. II. Bookplates – Unnumbered. III. Bookplates Attributed to Eve. IV. Correspondence and Ephemera.

Collection Contents

Series I: Bookplates – Numbered

This series includes bookplates that are identified and numbered according to the descriptive catalogue published by George Heath Viner in 1916.

Arranged numerically by checklist number – roughly chronological in order. Any correspondence or ephemeral materials relating to a specific bookplate are filed together with the bookplate.
