Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Gift of Myres S. McDougal, 1992-1995, and 1997-1998; and transfer from the Yale Law School, 1998-1999.

Conditions Governing Access

Accessions 1995-M-002, 1995-M-082, 1995-M-212, 1996-M-031, 1997-M-118, 1998-M-114, and 1999-M-056 are unprocessed and may contain sensitive information or be in a physical state that would prohibit use. Researchers wishing to request access should email beinecke.library@yale.edu. The request should outline the scope and purpose of the research project, why the researcher believes the material is relevant to their project, and contact information. If possible the request should also include a list of specific material of interest including collection, box, and folder numbers (or folder descriptions if folders are not numbered). The review may take several weeks.

All other material is open to research.

Original audiovisual materials, as well as preservation and duplicating masters, may not be played. Researchers must consult use copies, or if none exist must pay for a use copy, which is retained by the repository. Researchers wishing to obtain an additional copy of non-commercially produced items for their personal use should consult the ordering reproductions information on the Manuscripts and Archives web site.

Conditions Governing Use

Permission to quote from the papers or to publish extracts must be secured from W. Michael Reisman and Andrew R. Willard, acting either jointly or singly, so long as either of them lives. Copyright status for other collection materials is unknown. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.
