Biographical / Historical

Born Irene Greene Dwen, Mrs. Pace (1892-1962) was an avid bookplate collector from the early 1920s until 1962. In addition to over 150,000 plates in her collection, she also maintained a reference library related to bookplates as well as heraldry and biographical research. Pace commissioned several hundred bookplates for herself. In 1936, she published Owners of Books: The Dissipations of a Collector.

Scope and Contents

The collection contains bookplates and other documentation related to the personal ex-libris designs of Irene Dwen Andrews Pace (1892-1962). Pace was a prolific bookplate collector who acquired nearly 300 personal ex-libris designs. Her personal collection includes designs commissioned directly from artists as well as several commercial designs. Pace also saved trial proofs and final prints along with any correspondence, carved wood blocks or engraved plates, original sketches, or other printed ephemera by the artists.

Arrangement

Organized into four series: I. Bookplates – Mounted. II. Bookplates – Unmounted. III. Process Materials. IV. Correspondence and Ephemera.

Collection Contents

Series I: Bookplates – Mounted

This series contains bookplates and supporting materials related to Pace's personal ex-libris designs. These materials were mounted and stored in binders according to the same collecting practices for her other bookplate collections.

Arranged sequentially according to numbers assigned by Pace, which are chronological by date of commission.

Series III: Process Materials

This series contains examples of process materials—namely, blocks or plates—for many of Pace’s personal bookplate designs. Whenever possible, Pace collected these materials directly from the artists, often as part of the initial negotiation for the commission.

Series III is restricted and requires curatorial permission before use.

Arranged sequentially according to numbers assigned by Pace, which are roughly chronological by date of commission.

Series IV: Correspondence and Ephemera

b. 46 Correspondence and Ephemera

This folder contains correspondence and ephemera unattached to specific bookplates. It includes additional copies of the partial, type-written checklist of Pace's personal designs; four sets of draft correspondence together with bookplates selected by Pace for exchange; and various printed ephemera, including exchange cards explaining the various forms of Pace's name and also requesting that any bookplate correspondence be addressed to Mrs. Edmund Andrews.

Series IV is restricted and requires curatorial permission before use.
