Biographical / Historical

Jen Yu-wen (Jian Youwen) was born in Canton, China, in 1896. Jen was baptized as a Christian in 1910. He attended Oberlin College and obtained his master's degree from the University of Chicago in 1919. He returned to China in 1921. While teaching at Yenching University in Peiping, he met General Feng Yuxiang (1882-1948), a powerful warlord in northern China in the 1920s. In 1926, Jen joined the political party, Kuo-min tang, and was sent to work in Feng Yuxiang's army.

In 1936, Jen founded the literary historical journal, Yijing. Later in 1938, he founded a second journal, Typhoon Magazine, which ceased publication in 1941 when Japan occupied Hong Kong. After 1949, Jen moved to Hong Kong and devoted more attention to his Taiping studies. From 1954 to 1965, Jen Yu-Wen held research fellowships at the Institute of Oriental Studies of the University of Hong Kong, the Academia Sinica in Taiwan and Yale University. He completed two monumental three-volume works covering the entire history of the Taiping Rebellion, Taiping tianguo dian zhi tong kao (Studies on the Institutions of Taiping tianguo) and Taiping tianguo quan shi (Complete History of Taiping tianguo). His The Taiping Revolutionary Movement was published by the Yale University Press in 1973.

Jen had a long, multifaceted career as educator, historical scholar, government official, political advisor, art collector, folklorist, storyteller, and librettist. Jen Yu-wen died in Hong Kong in 1978.

The bulk of the papers are in Series I, which consists of Jen Yu-Wen's writings and research materials on the Taiping Rebellion. Thirteen of the nineteen boxes in the series consist of drafts of Jen Yu-wen's The Taiping Revolutionary Movement, which was published by Yale University Press in 1973.
