Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

With the exception of one box, the papers were deposited by Arthur C. Walworth, 1972-1993 and 1999; and were the gift of Ellen R. Ebersole, 1993. Accession 1995-M-091 was deposited by Ellen Ebersole in 1994. Gift of Arthur C. Walworth, 2004.

Conditions Governing Access

The materials are open for research.

Original audiovisual materials, as well as preservation and duplicating masters, may not be played. Researchers must consult use copies, or if none exist must pay for a use copy, which is retained by the repository. Researchers wishing to obtain an additional copy for their personal use should consult Copying Services information on the Manuscripts and Archives web site.

Conditions Governing Use

Copyright is retained by Ellen Ross Ebersole, the Donor, of this collection for materials authored or otherwise produced by Arthur C. Walworth. After the lifetime of the Donor, her copyright passes to Yale University. Copyright status for other collection materials is unknown. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of the copyright owners. Works not in the public domain cannot be commercially exploited without permission of the copyright owners. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

Accession 2006-M-098: Additional material, 1989

This accession consists of a recording made on June 7, 1989, during which Arthur Walworth reads an account of his 1925 visit to the Republic of China to an unidentified audience at North Hill. Walworth recalls arriving in Ch'ang-sha, the capital of Hunan sheng (province), where he taught English at the Yale-in-China medical school. The account continues with descriptions of student protests and other revolutionary activities that rocked China as Nationalist and Communist forces clashed. The tape also includes Walworth's interactions with Christian missionaries in China; descriptions of Chinese leaders, such as Chiang Kai-shek and Mao Tse-tung; and Walworth's personal experiences and reflections on his trip.

Original audiovisual materials, as well as preservation and duplicating masters, may not be played. Researchers must consult use copies, or if none exist must pay for a use copy, which is retained by the repository. Researchers wishing to obtain an additional copy of non-commercially produced items for their personal use should consult the ordering reproductions information on the Manuscripts and Archives web site.
