Processing Information

Yale University records are arranged and described at the accession level by the creating office. The University Archives creates collection level descriptive records, but typically does no further arrangement and description at the accession level.

Scope and Contents

The records consist of proposals, specifications, correspondence, memoranda, reports, schedules, drawings, a 16mm film, and administrative records, maintained by the Yale Office of Facilities, documenting construction and renovation projects for Yale buildings. Also included is detailed information about the design and installation of mechanical, laboratory, and other equipment and systems.

General note

Forms part of Yale Record Group 46-A (YRG 46-A), Records and materials broadly documenting Yale buildings, facilities, and grounds.

Arrangement

The records are arranged as follows: I. Specifications, correspondence, and other project records, 1891-1985. II. Drawings, 1912-1988; and subsequent accessions.

Collection Contents

Series I: Specifications, correspondence, and other project records, 1891-1985

Building specifications, cost lists, charts, reports, correspondence, memoranda, proposals, smaller drawings, and the like, from 1891 to 1985, comprise this large collection of documentation from the erstwhile Architectural and Engineering Services (now Facilities Planning). The materials address aspects of overall building construction and renovation, as well as detailed work in plumbing, ventilation, heating, air-conditioning, and electrical fixtures. The purchase, installation, and maintenance of building equipment (especially in university dining halls and science or medical laboratories) is also documented.

Please note that most drawings originally found in these files were removed for proper storage and preservation. These drawings are inventoried in Series II.
