CALL NUMBER: MS 1458

CREATOR: Reid, Whitelaw, 1837-1912

TITLE: Whitelaw Reid papers

DATES: 1865-1923

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 8 linear feet (11 boxes and 1 folio)

LANGUAGE: English

SUMMARY: The papers consist of nine volumes of autographed letters written by prominent American, British, and French political, financial, literary, and cultural figures. The majority of letters are addressed to Whitelaw Reid or Elizabeth Mills Reid, and date from Reid's service as ambassador to Great Britain. Letters of introduction, acknowledgements of gifts and invitations, congratulatory messages, and letters of condolence comprise the bulk of the letters. The volumes also include letters relating to the New York Tribune and substantive letters from President Theodore Roosevelt (1906-1907) concerning Morocco, the Algeiras Conference, and other diplomatic and political matters.

Biographical / Historical

Whitelaw Reid was born near Xenia, Ohio on October 27, 1837. He worked as a journalist during the Civil War and in 1868 joined the New York Tribune. He assumed control of the paper in 1872 and married Elizabeth Mills in 1881. Reid was active in Republican Party politics and served as Benjamin Harrison's ambassador to France (1889-1892). He ran for vice-president in 1892, and served as a member of the commission to negotiate a treaty with Spain following the Spanish American War. Reid also served as United States ambassador to Great Britain (1905-1912). He died on December 15, 1912.

Scope and Contents

The papers consist of nine volumes of autographed letters written by prominent American, British, and French political, financial, literary, and cultural figures. The majority of letters are addressed to Whitelaw Reid or Elizabeth Mills Reid, and date from Reid's service as ambassador to Great Britain. Letters of introduction, acknowledgements of gifts and invitations, congratulatory messages, and letters of condolence comprise the bulk of the letters. The volumes also include letters relating to the New York Tribune and substantive letters from President Theodore Roosevelt (1906-1907) concerning Morocco, the Algeiras Conference, and other diplomatic and political matters.

Arrangement

Original volumes are arranged in numerical order (I-IX), with oversize material (not microfilmed) filed after the volumes. The microfilm publication and copyflow (use copies) documents are arranged in the same manner and listed last.

Collection Contents

Series I: Originals, 1864-1923

The volumes in the series may not be used in the original form. Researchers are required to use FILM HM 169 or the copies (copyflo) in Series II produced from this microfilm instead of the originals. The oversize material in box 4 may be used in its original form.
