Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Ongoing collection of documents acquired by gift and purchase from various sources. Source information is recorded on folders and boxes. For further information, consult the appropriate curator.

Conditions Governing Access

The materials are open for research.

Folders 1-12: Restricted fragile material. Reference surrogates have been substituted in the main files. For further information consult the appropriate curator.

Oversize Folder 90 (Record album storage): Reference copies may be requested. Consult Access Services for further information.

Conditions Governing Use

The General Collection Manuscript Music Miscellany is the physical property of the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University. Literary rights, including copyright, belong to the authors or their legal heirs and assigns. For further information, consult the appropriate curator.

Preferred Citation

[Author], [Item Title]. General Collection Manuscript Music Miscellany. Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University.

Processing Information

This finding aid is updated periodically to account for new materials that have been added to the collection. For information on material that may have been acquired for the collection since the last update, please consult the Access Service Desk.

This finding aid contains materials previously cataloged in the Manuscript Card Catalog, in the General Collection Manuscript Miscellany, and as GEN MSS 317 and 518; GEN MSS VOL 81, 85, 137, 171, 208, 407-410, 420, 424, and 428-436; and GEN MSS FILE 17, 22, 29, 241, 330, 339, 359, 372, and 380-381. All pertinent bibliographic information has been retained. Cross references have been listed in the General Collection Manuscript Miscellany.

Shelf locations were formerly listed under group numbers consisting of a sequential number and name (e.g. Group 1, Massenet, Jules). Group numbers were discontinued in 2010 April. Former group numbers for materials added before 2010 April are noted in folder notes. In 2022, complete works of notated music formerly classed within this collection but also cataloged separately in Yale's online catalog (Orbis) were given new call numbers and may now be requested through Orbis. Notes indicating the new call numbers for these items appear in the listing for this collection.

Scope and Contents

This finding aid encompasses single manuscripts and small groups of manuscripts relating to music, acquired by the Beinecke Library from various sources and at various times.

Materials are grouped alphabetically by name. Within each name heading, materials are organized in three subgroups: Correspondence, Music, and Other Papers. Within each subgroup, folders and volumes are listed by folder or volume title, except Music, which is arranged alphabetically by work title and subarranged by folder or volume title. Correspondence files contain outgoing letters from the name in the group heading to other correspondents, unless otherwise indicated. Music is written the composer's holograph, unless otherwise indicated.

[circa 1825-1830]

Bound collection of printed and manuscript music, circa 1820s, apparently owned by Caroline de Saint-Cricq. Contents are mostly printed scores for sacred vocal music, by Luigi Cherubini, Louis-Emmanuel Jadin, J. B. Drocourt, and others. Also present are French national songs and piano music, printed and manuscript, some relating to the French Revolution, by Etienne Nicolas Méhul, Adolphe Nourrit, and others. Some music includes manuscript revisions and other annotations in an unidentified hand.

Caroline de Saint-Cricq (born circa 1810) was a daughter of Pierre-Laurent-Barthélemy, comte de Saint-Cricq, who served as French minister of commerce, 1828-1829. In 1827 she studied music with Franz Liszt, with whom she had a brief love affair. In 1830 she married Bertrand d'Artigaux.

Score in two volumes, written in manuscript in the hands of several copyists, with text in Italian and German translation. Annotations on the title page of each act list performances in Italian cities, including Alba, 1882; Alessandria, 1851; Bari, 1877-1878; Bergamo, 1851 and 1885-1886; Brescia, 1887; Verdi's Busseto estate, 1890; Casale Monferrato, 1878; Fabriano, n.d.; Faenza, n.d.; Fano, 1877-1878; Fiume, n.d.; Genoa, 1850 and 1889; Gorizia, 1889; Mantua, 1878 and 1887; Milan, 1881; Padua, 1879-1880; Parma, n.d.; Pistoia, 1890; Reggio, 1851 and 1883; Riva, 1878; Rome, 1885 and n.d.; Rovigo, 1850; San Remo, 1880-1881; Turin, n.d.; Vercelli, 1851-1852; Vicenza, 1888; and Zara, 1852 and n.d.

Stamps on title pages and throughout each act indicate that the score was rented through the Leipzig office of Verdi's publisher Ricordi, apparently during a German revival of the opera in the 1920s. Blank pages following each act are stamped 1929. Part of act two and missing fragments of a few other pages have been replaced by later copyists. Metronome markings, cuts, and other performance markings appear throughout the score. The title page of act one is signed by conductor Leopoldo Mugnone.

Bound by a former owner. "D. Walter" stamped on each spine.
