CALL NUMBER: MS 2055

CREATOR: Duffield, Warren L., 1875-1935

TITLE: Warren L. Duffield papers

DATES: 1930-1935

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: .67 linear feet (2 boxes)

LANGUAGE: The bulk of the material is in English. A small amount of material, primarily in the souvenirs, is in Danish.

SUMMARY: This collection documents the voyage of the S.S. Jelling in support of the Pan American Airways Expedition of 1933, led by Charles and Anne Morrow Lindbergh, to chart northern air routes to Europe and survey possible landing sites for aircraft on trans-Atlantic flights. Dr. Warren L. Duffield, the medical officer for the expedition, kept a daily log of the voyage, which included stops in Labrador, Greenland, and Iceland. An enthusiastic amateur photographer, Duffield also took numerous photographs. These materials, and articles written by Dr. Duffield after the voyage, comprise the bulk of the collection. There are also postcards, pamphlets and currency from Greenland and Iceland, some newspaper clippings and articles on the voyage, and a small amount of correspondence.

Biographical / Historical

Warren L. Duffield was born on Staten Island on February 14, 1875. After graduating from Long Island College Hospital in 1898, he interned at St. John's Hospital and remained there for his subsequent medical career, becoming senior surgeon in 1931. In 1933, he served as the medical officer for the support staff on board the S.S. Jelling with the Pan American Airways Expedition led by Charles and Anne Morrow Lindbergh. At the end of the voyage, he returned to his work at St. John's Hospital, where he died of a heart attack on November 21, 1935.

Scope and Contents
