Processing Information

The finding aid for this collection is compiled from individual preliminary lists for each acquisition that were created at or around the time of receipt by the library.

As a rule, descriptive information found in the Collection Contents section is drawn in large part from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Formerly classed as Za Fisher, Uncat Za Fisher, Uncat Za Ms 238, Uncat Za Ms 286, Uncat Za Ms 509, and Uncat Za Ms 594.

Existence and Location of Copies

Portions of the collection also available on microfilm. Consult Access Services for additional information.

Vardis Fisher (1895-1968)

Vardis Fisher was born March 31, 1895 in Annis, Idaho to Joseph Oliver and Temperance (Thornton) Fisher. He was educated at the University of Utah (A.B., 1920) and the University of Chicago (A.M., 1922 and Ph.D., 1925).

After graduating from the University of Chicago, Fisher taught for several years as an assistant professor of English at the University of Utah (1925-1928) and New York University (1928-1931) before returning to Idaho, where he served as director of the Federal Writers Project for the state of Idaho (1935-1939) and as an editor and contributor to various periodicals from the late 1930s until his death in 1968.

Fisher won a number of awards for his literary and non-fiction work, including the Harper Prize in 1939 for Children of God, the Wrangler Award for best Western historical novel in 1965 for Mountain Man, and the Spur Award in 1966 and 1969. Fisher's novel Mountain Man was made into a popular film (Jeremiah Johnson), starring Robert Redford, by Sydney Pollack in 1972.

Fisher married three times: to Leona McMurtrey, 1918; Margaret Trusler, 1928; and Opal Laurel Holmes, 1940.

Scope and Contents

The Vardis Fisher papers document the personal and professional life of prolific Western novelist and author Vardis Fisher. The collection contains material relating to writing projects, personal and family correspondence, photographs, financial records, and personal papers. Writings include notes for large projects, such as the multi-volume Testament of Man, as well as drafts, proofs, printed versions, and other materials for numerous novels, non-fiction, and shorter works dating from the mid 1930s onward. There are drafts and other materials, for example, for his successful early novel Children of God (1939) to his late Suicide or Murder? (1962), an analysis of the death of Meriwether Lewis. Personal correspondence includes incoming and outgoing letters with friends, writers, publishers, magazines, and others. Additional Fisher material includes financial records, clippings, and personal papers. There is also a fair amount of unsorted correspondence, Fisher family correspondence, Opal Fisher correspondence, and photographs.

Arrangement

Organized chronologically by acquisition into five groupings: I. 1958-1968 Acquisitions, 1936-1962. II. August 1992 Acquisition, 1905-1990. III. June 1993 Acquisition, 1870-1984. IV. December 1996 Acquisition, [circa 1930s-1980s]. V. December 1998 Acquisition, [circa 1940s-1960s].
