Processing Information

Collections are processed to a variety of levels, depending on the work necessary to make them usable, their perceived research value, the availability of staff, competing priorities, and whether or not further accruals are expected. The library attempts to provide a basic level of preservation and access for all collections as they are acquired, and does more extensive processing of higher priority collections as time and resources permit.

This collection received a basic level of processing, including rehousing and minimal organization.

Information included in the Description of Papers note and Collection Contents section is drawn from information supplied with the collection and from an initial survey of the contents. Folder titles appearing in the contents list below are often based on those provided by the creator or previous custodian. Titles have not been verified against the contents of the folders in all cases. Otherwise, folder titles are supplied by staff during initial processing.

This finding aid may be updated periodically to account for new acquisitions to the collection and/or revisions in arrangement and description.

Jacques Lacomblez

Jacques Lacomblez, a Surrealist painter and poet, was born in Brussels, Belgium in 1934. Lacomblez began exhibiting his paintings in 1952, published his poetry extensively, and collaborated with other Surrealist artists and authors. Additionally, Lacomblez created "Edda," an avant-garde art and poetry magazine, producing five issues between 1958-1965.

Scope and Contents

The Jacques Lacomblez Papers, which span from 1952 to 2016, contain correspondence, writings, printed material, photographs, electronic media, and other papers by or relating to Jacques Lacomblez. Materials document Lacomblez's artistic practice, his involvement with publishing including the production of "Edda" magazine, and his relationships with other artists and creatives.

Arrangement

Organized into five series: I. Writings, 1960-2016. II. Correspondence, 1958-2015. III. Photographs and artwork, 1952-2011. IV. Exhibition Catalogs, Announcements, and Invitations, 1952-2015. V. Electronic Media, 2011.
